AUTOMOBILE SHOW OPENS NEXT WEEK

Early Reports Indicate Affair
Will Be Biggest and Best Yet

Chairman A. G. Hawker of the committee in charge of awarding space for display at the New Britain Automobile show, reports that the number of requests already in convince him that this year's exposition will be on of the biggest and best ever staged here.

The show will open Wednesday, March 1 and will continue for four afternoons and evenings. In the evening, orchestra music will be provided and an entertainment furnished. A special committee is working out this feature and assures that the best things in concert music will be furnished and that the entertainers will be of the brand that is sure to please.

Elaborate Decorations
Elaborate decorations throughout the spacious exposition hall are planned. The color scheme will be rustic with an interspersing of wisterias, which, the decorators feel sure, will give a most pleasing effect.

Reports of progress being received by the general committee by those delegated to work up the detail of the annual automobile show indicate there is no need for New Britainites going to Hartford this year to see a real automobile show.

Almost every car on the road today from the most inexpensive brand of roadster to the most expensive limousines, will be seen on the armory floor next week from Wednesday until Saturday night. Accessories new and old, including those which have been on the market for years as well as those which have not yet been placed on sale, will be placed in the booths so that automobilists and prospective car owners may have an opportunity to inspect the goods.

Many Dealers Represented
Mostly every local dealer and accessory merchant has rented space. Cars not having a local agency will be displayed through their main offices, applications for several such reservations having been received.

Courteous attendants will be on hand at the several booths to explain to patrons of the show whether or not they intend to buy a car, the attractions offered in each machine. Descriptive literature will also be provided by the agents of the many cars to be exhibited.

HEAD OF WAR RISK INSURANCE IS DEAD

Heart Trouble Is Fatal to Col. R. G. Cholmeley-Jones, Ex-Govt.

Official

New York, Feb. 21.—Col. R. G. Cholmeley-Jones, formerly director of the bureau of war risk insurance died at the Presbyterian hospital early today. He had been ill at the hospital since October 30 last.

Col. Cholmeley-Jones who was 38 years of age was twice rejected for military service during the war, but the government recognizing his ability as an organizer, gave him a captain's commission in the adjutant general's department and sent him overseas with the war risk section. In this work he was a colleague of the late Major Willard Straight. Shortly after he arrived in France, Col. Cholmeley-Jones became chief of the war risk bureau in the American Expeditionary forces, remaining in France until 1919.

Upon his return to America he was called to Washington by the secretary of the treasury, and became director of the bureau of war risk insurance, his task being the reorganization of the work being done by the bureau. He continued at the work for almost two years when he resigned to become vice-president of the Finance and Trading Corp. of this city.

Heart disease was the cause of death.

It has been discovered that gelatine can be made from old leather.

GIRLS! LEMONS
WHITEN ROUGH
CHAPPED HANDS

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter-pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach lotion to soften and whiten red, rough chapped hands. This home made lemon lotion is far superior to glycerin and rose water to smoothen the skin. Famous stage beauties use it to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, because it doesn't irritate.

St. Petersburg, Fla., Feb. 21.—The Fourth Annual Tournament to decide the horse shoe pitching championship of the United States, one of the most unique sporting events staged in this country, opened here today with "barnyard golfers" from all points of the compass on hand to exhibit their skill at hanging a shoe around a peg at a distance of forty feet. The meet which will continue the greater part of the week, is being held under auspices of the National Association of Horse Shoe Pitchers and the contestants will fight it out on five pitching langes before a grand stand built to accommodate 7,500 spectators. NATIONAL HOLIDAY PLAN Propose Observance Of Memorial Day Throughout Country As Others Are Celebrated.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 22.—International observance of May 30 each year as Memorial Day is being urged by J. W. Hamilton of St. Paul, who has received commendation for his proposal from many prominent persons in Europe and other countries.

It is proposed to have a holiday for school children on that day, with suitable exercises the day previous, "so as to bring to their plastic minds what the day means and what it can be made to mean for the future."

Expressions of approval for the plan have been received by Mr. Hamilton from Senator Wavinsky, Stockholm, member of the Inter-Parliamentary Union; Stephane Lauzanne, editor of Le Matin, Paris; Maron Sakatini, Tokio, and many others.

JAZZ MUSIC NOT SO VERY POPULAR

February Publication of Phonograph Interests Tells Story

Several days ago The Herald carried an interview with local dance orchestra men in regard to the popularity of jazz and its decline within the past few months. The interview stated that jazz was decidedly on the wane.

This contention is still more reliably supported by an article which appeared in the February number of the Talking Machine World. The following is the story as told by the magazine:

"As was noted before in these columns, there is much ado about the present jazz craze in America and, naturally, music—particularly of the jazz variety, comes in for its share of condemnation. In looking over the current catalogs of the publishers, however, we find only comparatively few real jazz numbers. We find, however, more good ballads and waltz numbers than in some seasons past and the typical love song, which can hardly be termed jazz, is not lacking. We also find a tendency, at the present time, to issue Hawaiian numbers. This latter is so true that at the present moment there is hardly a catalog that has not at least one or two such numbers, and these cannot be termed jazz.

Getting Real Music.
We also find that in arranging numbers many publishers are getting music-not effects and these can hardly be called jazz for they are melodious—and real music.

All the above being true, which can be substantiated by a close analysis of current releases, it would seem that music is being charged with crimes of which it is not guilty.

We might say, however, that one of the reasons why the average popular song, particularly in its dance form, is described as jazz is the fault of the present-day orchestras, which on too numerous occasions add their own original arrangements and effects to the orchestra arrangements placed in their hands by the publishers.

Blame Orchestra.
This is not to say that the orchestras are putting the jazz in music, but they often do put in their own special ideas—effects which the publisher more often than not would be glad to see left out. Sometimes these special arrangements chop up the melody and fail to carry out the theme in its original form. The publishers, of course, is interested in seeing the melody carried out and repeated because the reputation of the melody is what makes for popularity and sells the music.

TOKIO PRINCES TO BE WELL TRAINED

Will Receive Best Education in Imperial Family

Tokio, Dec. 26.—(By Mail).—Princes of the blood who at present have no choice in the matter, will be brought up and trained in conformity with their inclinations if a modification of education regulations governing male members of the Imperial Family is adopted. A meeting of officials of the Imperial Household Department to deliberate on the question was held recently at the official residence of Viscount Makino, minister of the department.

According to the regulations all male members of the Imperial Family and Princes of the blood must receive a military education and become officers after a regular course of such education. A factor influencing the authors of the motion is reported to be the consideration that existence of such regulations encourages misunderstanding about the aspirations of the nation.

A person in close touch with the Imperial Household Department in the course of an interview with the Chugai Shogyo said:

"In the event the present proposal being approved by the higher authorities, the Imperial Princes will be enabled to receive the education they desire and will become trained business men, writers, university professors and so on."

John D. Rockefeller Insists Granddaughter's Fiance Must Become Citizen Of United States

Chicago, Feb. 21.—Approval of John D. Rockefeller, Sr., to the engagement of his 16 year old granddaughter, Mathilde McCormick, to Max Oser, Zurich, Switzerland, riding master, was given upon conditions that Oser become an American citizen.

This fact was reported today by friends of the family but there was no confirmation from the McCormicks.

Mrs. Oser's age still was a subject for debate, numerous persons here and at Milwaukee who professed to be cousins contended the Swiss equestrian is 57 years old while Edward A. Colby, friend of the McCormick family maintained that he is only 40 as against first reports of an age of 48, thrice that of Miss Mathilde.

Emil Burgy, Chicago interior decorator, the first cousin to make himself known, visited at the McCormick home yesterday but was informed at the front door that Mr. McCormick and Miss Mathilde were not receiving.

"It is the custom in the old country," he told newspapermen camped about the McCormick home "when a couple become engaged for all her relatives to call upon him, and all his relatives call upon her right away."

Mrs. McCormick who recently obtained a divorce maintained yesterday her silence on the subject that she had nothing to say.

PLAN DANCE REFORM

Men's Church Club in New Jersey Opposes Modern Wriggling.
New York, Feb. 21.—The Men's club of Trinity Reformed church, Palisade avenue and 14th street, West New York, N. J., is out against modern dances because it considers them little more than hugging and wrestling matches. It has planned a crusade against the "wriggling, shuffling connotations of today" because they are developing such peccies of "so-called males" as "sharpies" and "snakes" and "female hoppers."

The club plans a "dance revival" in the church tonight, where landers, the quadrille, waltz, minuet and schottische are to replace the shimmy, camel walk, Chicago and scandal. The club hopes the dance will start a nation-wide campaign against dancing as dancing is today.

PREVENTS 54 SUICIDES

Some Murders are Also Avoided by Activities of Anti-Suicide League at Zurich, Switzerland.

Geneva, Feb. 21.—Fifty-four men and women were prevented from committing suicide in the last six months through the efforts of an anti-suicide league at Zurich, according to a report just issued. Some of the 54 also had planned to take other lives before their own.

Members of the league receive appeals in confidence from desperate persons and each case is handled in a kindly but firm manner. Moral, and sometimes financial aid is given until the crisis is past. Most of those thus saved from self-destruction are now doing well and their secret is carefully guarded by the league.
